Help and support is closer than you think

South Staffordshire Networking Workshop

When communities come together, they thrive. This networking event brings together professionals in South Staffordshire to help make that happen.

This Supportive Communities workshop is for any Adult Social Care, health, VCSE sector colleagues and other partners working in South Staffordshire interested in

- connecting with others and local partners
- finding out about the organisations and support already active in South Staffordshire
- identifying gaps and how to overcome barriers to increase community capacity
- identifying opportunities to work together
- finding out more about what is available from partners to support communities to thrive
- networking and VCSE promotion through marketplace stands and tabletop discussions

This is part of the wider partnership approach to supporting communities to thrive

Deadline to book your tickets: Friday 14th November
